3. and architectural character of the district in 1978. Because the original boundary of the district bisected the B & O warehouse as a result of professional error in drawing the boundary, on September 13, 1978, the National Register boundary was changed to include the entire warehouse within the district. In this context, the Maryland State Historic Preservation Officer stated that Henderson's Wharf was an important example of warehouse architecture and a major contributor to the industrial character of the Fells Point waterfront.
